Asset Allocation	The Fund may invest up to 100%* (minimum equity allocation is 70%) of its NAV in equities and equity-related securities but this asset allocation may be reviewed from time to time during the temporary defensive position depending on the economic and stock market conditions. Maximum fixed income allocation is set at 30% of the Fund's NAV. An internal allocation for liquid assets will be maintained to ensure that the Fund is able to meet redemption requests without jeopardising the Fund's performance. *The Fund's exposure (if any) in foreign equities is up to 30% of its NAV only. The investment in foreign equities will be in eligible markets. It is important to know that the Fund's foreign exposure, if any, will be limited in scope and depth, and is on optional basis, not permanent basis. The Fund can adopt temporary defensive position depending on the market, economic, political or other conditions. Please also refer to "Section 5.3 Minimum and Maximum Levels of Asset Allocation / Temporary Defensive Position" in the Master Prospectus. The balance of the Fund's NAV that is not invested in equities and equity-related securities, will be invested in fixed income securities and money market

	instruments. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Equity Investment Strategy The Fund may invest up to 100% of its assets in stocks that have a consistent dividend policy (i.e. having paid dividends three out of the last five years), historical or expected dividend yield and potential for capital growth, that is on average higher than the prevailing 12-month fixed deposit rate as published by leading banks or Bank Negara Malaysia. The balance will be invested in high-yielding fixed income instruments. The Fund will only invest up to its maximum equity allocation of 100% when there are sufficient high-yielding or potentially high-yielding dividend stocks available. During bull markets and where overall dividend yields* can be low relative to bank deposit returns, the Fund will increase its holding of fixed income instruments while reducing its equity weightage. However, the Fund will still observe the minimum 70% equity allocation. As market prices rise, the dividend yields would drop and if stock prices are overly bullish (rise too much), the dividend yields could drop to well below prevailing deposit returns/rates. * Dividend yield = Fixed dividend/Market price The Fund will be restricted to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A minimum of 70% of the invested equity or equity-related securities has to be invested in securities with a track record of having paid dividends three out of the last five years. - A maximum of 30% of the invested equity or equity-related securities can be invested in securities with the potential to pay dividends within the next 12-month period.  This 70:30 allocation refers only to the portion of investment in equity. A small portion of the Fund may be used for short-term trading, when opportunities arise. Opportunities will include but are not limited to arbitrage situations, discrepancies in valuation, expected liquidity surges and thematic plays. When there are no opportunities, the Fund will not conduct any short-term trading. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fixed Income and Money Market Instrument Investments In managing the Fund's investments in fixed income securities, our strategy hinges on the need for a well-diversified portfolio and focus on the credit qualities of securities in the portfolio. The fixed income portfolio construction process is research driven and based on macroeconomic analysis, interest rate analysis, credit analysis and yield spread analysis. Other than the development of a broad asset allocation model, contributions will be made via active management to capitalise on changes in interest rates, inter-sector yield spreads and yield spreads of any specific bonds. As for investment in money market instruments, the Fund shall invest in money market instruments that carry at least an investment grade credit rating of BBB or P3 assigned by RAM or MARC. Should the credit ratings of the money market instrument be downgraded to lower than BBB or P3, the Investment Manager reserves the right to deal with the said investment in the best interest of the unit holders including to withdraw the invested money market instruments within a reasonable time frame.
Investment Policy and Strategy	To attain the Fund's objective of generating attractive income and capital gains, the Fund will invest in a diversified portfolio of equity and fixed income instruments. The Fund will attempt to exceed the prevailing 12-month fixed deposit rates published by leading banks or Bank Negara Malaysia by investing in a portfolio of equities and fixed income instruments whose average yields and capital gains could potentially generate such returns. If we cannot identify suitable equities with attractive current or potential future dividend yields, monies will be parked in fixed income instruments with attractive yields (up to 30% of the Fund's NAV). Stock selection will not be based solely on existing high dividend criteria. In the search for high dividend-yielding stocks, we will also undertake fundamental analysis to determine the future prospects of prospective investee companies, the prospects of the industries they are operating in and the overall macroeconomic picture. These factors in turn have a bearing on the future dividends paid by these companies. A key component is to identify those companies which may not have a dividend track record, but may be in a position to undertake a dividend payment. Notwithstanding the investment objective of the Fund, we may from time to time, due to economic conditions, temporarily invest in fixed income securities or other

	liquid assets to protect the capital of the Fund.
Performance Benchmark	The benchmark for the Fund is FTSE Bursa Malaysia Top 100 Index (FBM 100) or such other equivalent index as may be substituted by Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad is widely used and publicly available from major newspapers on a daily basis. KEY RISKS

6. What are the key risks associated with this product?

General Risks of investing in unit trust:

Stock Specific Risk	This risk refers to prices of a particular stock may fluctuate in response to the circumstances affecting individual companies such as adverse financial performance, news of a possible merger or loss of key personnel of a company. Any adverse price movements of such stock in a fund will adversely affect the fund's NAV.
Liquidity risk	This risk occurs in thinly traded or illiquid securities. If the Fund needs to sell a relatively large amount of such securities, the act itself may significantly depress the selling price resulting in a decrease in the value of the Fund's assets. The Fund is managed in such a way that a portion of the investments is in equity securities and money market instruments that are highly liquid and this allows the Fund to meet sizeable redemptions without jeopardising potential returns.
Market risk	This risk refers to developments in the equity market environment which typically includes changes in regulations, politics, technology and the economy of the country. Market developments can result in equity market fluctuations which in turn affect the Fund's underlying investments and hence its unit price. In terms of the Fund's concentration in a single equity market*, this risk is reduced by undertaking active* asset allocation, where in periods of heightened risk, there will be greater allocation in fixed income securities and money market instruments and cash. * This refers to the Fund having the mandate to invest in only one country (i.e. Malaysian market). For example – in the event of a fall in Malaysian equities, the Fund cannot diversify into equities of other countries to mitigate equity market risk but can shift (asset allocate) its investments to local fixed income securities and money market instruments. The term 'active' refers to the fund manager periodically adjusting equity allocations (and by default fixed income securities and money market allocations) depending on market situations rather than passively leaving allocations to fluctuate based solely on market prices.

Specific risk subject to the characteristics of the type of securities that the Fund invests in:

Dividend Policy Risk	This is a risk particular to the Fund which has heavy focus on high dividend yielding stocks. This risk may occur when an investee company's business or fundamentals deteriorate or if there is a change in the management policy resulting in a lower or even a removal of the company's dividend policy. This risk may be mitigated by investing mainly in companies with a consistent historical record of paying dividends, strong cash flow or operate in fairly stable industries.

The Investment Manager exercises diligence in minimising the above risks to the Fund. However, it is not always possible to cover all investment risks in spite of best efforts as financial markets can be highly unpredictable. Investors are encouraged to consult their advisers such as financial/tax consultants, lawyers or bankers for a further understanding of these risks.

The list of risk factors identified is by no means exhaustive. You should be aware that investing in the Fund may expose you to other risk factors from time to time. If in doubt, please consult professional advisers for better understanding of the risk factors.

For further information, refer to the "General Risks" and "Specific Risks" sections in the Master Prospectus.

Note: If your investments are made through a distributor (i.e. the institutional unit trusts advisers via a nominee system of ownership), you would not be deemed to be a unitholder under the deed and as a result, your rights as an investor may be limited if you are investing through a distributor. Accordingly, the Manager will only recognize the distributor as a unitholder of the Fund and the said distributor shall be entitled to all the rights conferred to it under the deed.
